PLANO VOLUNTEER MICHELLE BRENNAN HALL AWARDED LONE STAR SALUTE!
BY VOLUNTEER CENTER OF NORTH TEXAS
Co-founder of Star Children's Charity and Plano Community Volunteer Recognized for Volunteerism

(PLANO, TEXAS) – May 5, 2009 – Volunteers inspire others with their contagious generosity. Their selfless work is seen in response to a disaster, righting wrongs, answering community needs and changing the world in a positive way. The Volunteer Center of North Texas celebrates volunteerism every day but once a year they host “Lone Star Salute!” which identifies “Volunteers of the Year,” nominated for their amazing servitude. Star Children’s Charity’s co-founder, Michelle Brennan Hall was recognized during the 2009 ceremony.

“Star Children’s Charity is honored to have Michelle Brennan Hall as a leader,” states Brenda Ewing Snitzer, Executive Director of Star Children’s Charity. “Hall’s commitment to the children of Collin County is an amazing inspiration to our members and beneficiaries,” continues Snitzer.

As an investment advisor, Michelle Brennan Hall understands the importance of investing in the future. This makes her uniquely qualified to lead the charge for investing in Collin County’s future by helping fund children’s causes. Brennan Hall has been fundraising in her community for six years helping make a difference for children. Her current role serving as President of the Board for Star Children’s Charity comes with a goal of donating $1.4M to seven worthy Collin County children’s organizations.

Since its inception in 2007, Star Children’s Charity has committed to being a leading voice of philanthropy in Collin County, dedicated to financially supporting non-profit organizations that benefit the well being of children and their families.

ABOUT STAR CHILDREN’S CHARITY: Star Children’s Charity is a leading voice of philanthropy in Collin County, dedicated to financially supporting non-profit organizations that benefit the well being of children.
